

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praises belong to Allah swt, the Most Merciful who always blesses and guides me so I can complete my thesis entitled “Exploring Students’ Difficulties of Writing at an Efl Secondary: Indonesian Students’ Voice”. Then, blessing and mercy are upon great to our Prophet Muhammad saw for his guidance that leads us to the truth. This thesis is submitted to fulfill the requirement for a Sarjana Pendidikan degree at the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.

On this occasion, I would like to express my special thanks to:

1. Head of Program Study of English Education, for his invaluable assistance both in academic and administrative matters,
2. Metty Agustine Primary S.Pd., M.Pd as the first supervisor who has provided advice and direction in completing this thesis,
3. Arini Nurul Hidayati., S.Pd., M.Pd. is the second supervisor who has provided advice and direction in writing this thesis,
4. All Lecturers of the Department of English Education, Faculty of Education and Teacher Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.
5. Both parents, Tuti Karmila and Dudi Dahnil, continually support and facilitate completing this thesis,
6. The researcher's young sisters, Nur Ihsani Jasmine, always provide support in completing this thesis,
7. Several research friends, Amethyst 26, Pasukan Istaka, Gina Salma Rahayu, Revi Silvia Dewi, Eka Rosmawati, and Refni Septia always support completing this thesis,
8. The researcher's life companion, who always supports and provides the best advice, Oga Hermawan, thank you for always keeping the process of completing this thesis.
9. Thank you for completing this thesis yourself. Thank you for fighting to complete this study even though the journey was so long and there were many obstacles during the process.

Finally, I realize that this thesis is far from perfect, so I am enthusiastic about receiving suggestions and criticism for its improvement. Hopefully, this thesis will be helpful for me and also the readers.
