

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The greatest moments in my life are when I found a part of my life and the supportive people surrounding me. They have important roles which make me believe that I can finish this thesis. Furthermore, I proudly express a bunch of love and thanks to the following people:

1. My beloved parents for their prayers, support, and everlasting love. Every time my parents pray for me, the hard work for me, makes me feel stronger than before. I always try to make them feel proud. I love them, and I am glad to have their everlasting love.
2. My 2 older sisters, and my older brothers, Dini, Puput, and Putra. Thank you for continuing to remind me to be enthusiastic in carrying out this study and for always cheering me up when I feel inadequate.
3. To my comrade, the late Riffani Dwi Utami, thank you for accompanying me from the beginning of the semester and for continuing to give me encouragement and advice when I was feeling inadequate.
4. Thanks to my classmates Kak Ros, Asri, and Teh Via who want to help me in completing assignments in various subjects during this lecture and always remind me to keep trying and be enthusiastic in completing my studies.
5. For friends who have the same frequency as me, thanks to you, Echi, Anggi, Natsu, and Novi who always accompany my days with the various colors you give, listen to all the problems I've told you, and helped me during my wander far from my hometown to complete this study.

6. I also want to thank All my sweeties' cats, Honey, Abel, Moi, Mona, Boleng, and Snowy who accompanied me during my study days with the cute behavior they showed me and their warmth when it rained.

7. Then I want to thank my 2 seniors who have always helped me in completing this study, Adenkun, and Satria. Thank you for their presence, which always reminds me to move forward and survive in solving all existing problems.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody important to the successful realization of this undergraduate thesis. I believe to get success; our courage must be greater than our fear. Enjoy the process, and always believe we can do it.
