

PREFACE

All praises due to Allah swt, who has given his blessing and mercy to the writer, therefore this thesis could be finished. Furthermore, may sholawat and salam be always bestowed to our prophet Muhammad saw, who has brought humanity from the darkness into the lightness. This research proposal intends to examine students' perceptions of the use and benefits of YouTube as a learning tool. In the background I reveal the role of YouTube in today's technology era. The usage of YouTube videos in teaching and learning has become a trend, so i investigate how YouTube's role in English learning especially for students. Besides that, I also provide a brief description of how I did this research. I hope that this research proposal can provide benefits to the development of the use of technology for language teachers to improve the quality of learning.