

ABSTRACT

This research aims to find out more about the leadership style of village heads in development in Cisayong Village, Tasikmalaya Regency. The methods used in this research are qualitative research methods and case study methods. The data collection techniques in this research are observation, interviews and documentation. The results of this research explain the leadership style of the Cisayong village head in driving development starting from organizing, planning, monitoring and driving. With the leadership of the Cisayong Village head in driving development by involving the community during development. To realize the success of development, there is very active involvement between the government collaborating with the community. Because development will not be successful without community involvement. Therefore, the village head's leadership style in mobilizing the community in development is part of the ability of the end result of all forms of development work that has been carried out well.

Keywords: Leadership Style, Village Development, Cisayong Village Community.