

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, the researcher represents gratitude for Allah SWT's presence, the Lord of the worlds. Blessings and greetings may be bestowed upon our master the Prophet Muhammad SAW, his family, and his followers. Finally, the researcher can finish writing this thesis entitled “LEARNING TO READ ENGLISH TEXT THROUGH Z-LIBRARY: INSIGHT FROM A NON-ENGLISH MAJOR STUDENT”. This thesis is submitted as partial fulfilment for Sarjana Pendidikan Degree writing at the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teacher’s Training, Siliwangi University.

In accomplishing this thesis, the researcher did not escape from support from several good people around her. On this occasion, the researcher would like to convey sincere gratitude to:

1. Metty Agustine Primary, S.Pd., M.Pd. as the first supervisor who has given guidance on this thesis.
2. Nita Sari Narulita Dewi, M.Pd. as the second supervisor who has given guidance on this thesis.
3. All lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teacher's Training, Siliwangi University.
4. The researcher’s parents, my father is Ahyarudin and my mother is Hernawati, have provided much support, prayers, and finances.
5. The author’s sister Nindy Febriyasa, gave me snacks while I accomplished this thesis.
6. The researcher's best friends for 6 years Nilsa Shalsabilla and Desta Laila Ramadita who always available when the researcher needs them.
7. The researcher's best friends since KKN was formed (Anisa Tiana, Deti Puspita, Sekar Arum, Viana Muna Munipati Sukma, and Wida Andayani) have supported and heard all of my difficulties when the researcher accomplished this thesis.
8. Putri Herlina and all colleagues majoring in English Education who have provided support to work on this thesis.

9. Thank you for my enthusiasm and struggle not to be lazy in compiling this study. I am proud of myself.
