

PREFACE

First of all, Alhamdulillah thanks to Allah for giving me his grace and blessing, also prophet Muhammad as my role model for everything that I did. Gratefully, the author finishes this thesis entitled “Investigating the impact of repetition drill on students’ pronunciation accuracy in an English Conversational Class”

This thesis aims to reveal the impact using repetition drill techniques as a classroom learning technique to improve pronunciation accuracy in their conversation classes. In addition, the author also provides a theoretical basis for using drilling techniques and pronunciation skills. In the last section, the writer provides a research methodology to explain how the writer will conduct the research.

In compiling this paper, the authors encountered many challenges but with the help and support of many parties, these challenges could be overcome wisely. The author realizes that there are still many mistakes in the process of writing this thesis. Therefore, criticism and suggestions from readers will help this thesis to be better in the future. Finally, I hope this thesis can be useful for readers to add to and support knowledge in the subject matter.
