

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First, the researcher would like to thank God Almighty for the blessing and grace and for giving me the health and patience to complete the thesis entitled “Investigating Self-Directed Learning of EFL Adult Learners Accomplish Their Academic Achievement”.

The researcher got much encouragement, support, and help in creating this final thesis. The researcher would like to express genuine gratitude to:

1. Head of English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teacher’s Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.
2. Santiana, S.S., M.Pd. as the first supervisor for giving advice, motivation and guidance in writing this final thesis.
3. Nita Sari Narulita Dewi, M.Pd., as the second supervisor, guided throughout the research and gave suggestions and motivation in writing this final thesis.
4. English Education Department lecturers, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teacher’s Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.
5. My beloved family, especially my greatest mother, Mrs. Ade Diana, and my best father, Alm. Mr. Adi Febriadi, my kind-hearted uncle, Mr. Teddy and his Family, my warm-hearted aunty, Mrs. Fetty and her Family, and all of my family that have not been mentioned, thank you for your eternal prayer, love, financial support, strength, and encouragement in enabling the author to finish the thesis.
6. My lifelong best friend, Anita Putri Ningrum. We have been together since senior high school.
7. My Hepi Kiyowok, Syahdina Tamadyan Hade, Nadya Jasmine Farahdilla, Pricillia Febrianty, and Silvadia Maharani Rahman who accompany the ups and downs, laughter, and sadness in college life.
8. My lovely best friends, Friscani Fitria Ramadanti and Ranty Novita Rahayu, always listen and talk about everything under any circumstances.
9. All participants are willing to contribute to this thesis.

The researcher acknowledges that this thesis has some flaws. Thus, I am open to suggestions and criticism for its improvement. The researcher is endlessly thankful for the unconditional support throughout the entire thesis process.
