

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Completing this thesis marks the end of the writer's college journey. Thus, the writer would like to express sincere gratitude to those who filled the past four years of this college life with great memories and invaluable lessons:

1. To the esteemed lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, University of Siliwangi, Tasikmalaya: thank you for sharing your knowledge and expertise. Everything you taught has shaped me into who I am today.
2. To my supervisors, Mrs. Sitti Syakira and Mrs. Dea Silvani: thank you for your guidance, constructive feedback, and unwavering support throughout the construction of this thesis. Without your help, I would not have been able to reach this point.
3. To my beloved parents, Bapa and Mamah: thank you for always believing in me, loving me unconditionally, and supporting me mentally and financially. You are the biggest source of my strength and motivation to finish my studies. I dedicate this degree to you.
4. To my beloved sisters, Imi and Upi: thank you for always being ready to help with anything. I hope you can achieve even more than I have today.
5. To Mrs. Leli Beliani, my mentor and teacher: thank you for your endless support and guidance. I look up to you both as a person and as a teacher.
6. To Fitriana Sri Rahayu and Vina Destriana, my best friends I met in college, with whom I share everything: I am so blessed to have friends like you. Thank you for always being there, even in my lowest moments.
7. To my classmates, Amajing Class: thank you for accompanying me during these four years. I will always remember the laughs and tears we shared. I wish you all the best in life, and hopefully, one day, we can gather and reminisce about these beautiful memories together.
8. To my colleagues in EDSA Resurgence 2021, EDSA Connective 2022, KKN 62 Sukahurip, and PLP SMPN 9 Tasikmalaya: thank you for being amazing partners in growth. I hope you succeed in whatever steps you take after this.

9. To myself, whom I love the most: thank you for trusting yourself and not giving up. These four years were not easy, but you conquered them eventually. All the hard work and dedication you put in has finally paid off. But remember, this degree is nothing if you cannot spread the benefits of what you've learned in college to the people around you. Let's be ready for that!

Finally, I apologize to those I did not mention here. Even so, I deeply appreciate everyone's love and support during my college life. May Allah reward your kindness with multiplied goodness.
