

PREFACE

Thanks to Allah SWT for His blessing and mercy, the author could finish writing this thesis entitled “EFL Students' Perception in Learning Vocabulary Through English Movies: A Case Study”

The background information provides a context related to EFL students' perception especially learning vocabulary through English, a gap, formulation of the problems, significance of the research, and aims of the research. The literature review contains a brief explanation of EFL students' perception, vocabulary learning, English movies and also learners' autonomy. The research design that used in this research was descriptive case study. Furthermore, the data collected through semi-structured interview which analyzed using thematic analysis.

In systematizing this paper, the researcher faced many challenges but with support from many individuals, these challenges can be solved. The author also noticed that there are still many mistakes in writing this thesis. Therefore, the criticism and suggestions from the reader will help this thesis to get better in the future. Hopefully, this paper can be useful for the readers to get more knowledge in this subject matter.

Tasikmalaya, December 2024

Fatih Amanullah

202122010