

ABSTRACT

The application of Google Maps API on the application of mapping the location of fish sales in tasikmalaya based on Android, is a system to help and facilitate the process of finding fish sellers in the area of tasikmalaya . The system provides a list of fish sellers along with a list of what fish are sold and the price kilogram of fish, all data has been entered in the database in the android application. The application of Google Maps API application has been tested by involving several audiences, to test black boxes, and to find out how the user response to the application has been made, from the results of filling out the questionnaire that was submitted to several audiences, 86.4% of the results were obtained that the application was eligible for publication. The results of the research about the application of google maps API in the mapping of fish sellers that users can find fish seller and the path that must be taken to be able to reach the place of fish sellers, and can compare the types of fish or the price of the fish.

Keyword : Google Maps API, Fish Sale, Android.