

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to begin by stating my gratitude to Allah SWT, the most merciful, compassionate, and the source of all guidance and wisdom. Therefore, due to His blessings and opportunities, I can accomplish this research thesis titled “THE VOICE OF SILENCE: AN INVESTIGATION FROM EFL STUDENTS THROUGH MODEL OF INTERPRETATION”. Many people helped the researcher complete this thesis. Consequently, the researcher would like to express profound gratitude for providing this important opportunity:

1. Head of Study Program of English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya
2. The honorable Neni Marlina S. Pd., M. Pd., as the first supervisor who has given guidance, feedback, and support to accomplish this research thesis;
3. The honorable Melisa Sri S. Pd., M. Pd., as the second supervisor who has given guidance, feedback, and support to accomplish this research thesis;
4. All lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya, for teaching and transferring me valuable knowledge and experiences throughout my college years;
5. My beloved parents, Erni Andriani, S. Si and Wira Diwindu Utama, who have given countless reassurance, prayers, guidance, financial, facilities, and emotional support;
6. My dearest grandparents, Edi Dahlan, S. Pd and Aan Anisah, who have poured all their love, prayers, and financial and facilitative support for the researcher;
7. The researcher’s whole family who have given love, prayers, and support for the needs of the researcher. My three little siblings who are annoying yet whom I love;

8. My partner and childhood friends, Sadeli, Fadli, Amelia, Erisa, Wahyuni, and Nisa who have given motivation, support, and become best partners in life for numerous years;
9. My college best friends, Syahdina, Pricillia, Nadya, and Salsa, who have given support and become best mates in college and life;
10. My big sisters from Miss El English Course, Deltha and Ega Maryam, who have given support, motivation, reassurance and accompanied me through hard times when I was all alone at Tasikmalaya;
11. My dearly loved father, Syaban Saepul Rahman, for always inspiring me to continue my study and life. You will always be missed, Ayah, I hope you are proud of me;
12. Last but not least, I want to thank myself for surviving every obstacle, fighting those noisy thoughts, and always trying to become a better person. Thank you, Silva.

Finally, the researcher would like to thank everyone who has supported and assisted in this research thesis.
