

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

All praise and gratitude are due to Allah SWT for the blessing and mercy that the undergraduate thesis entitled "Learning English Speaking Skills for Non-English Major Students: Challenges and Solutions" is completed. The thesis is submitted to the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Siliwangi University, as a partial fulfilment of the requirements for thesis writing.

On this occasion, the author would like to express sincere gratitude to the following:

1. Head of English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya,
2. Fuad Abdullah, M.Pd., as the first supervisor who has provided corrections and guidance in finishing this undergraduate thesis,
3. Asri Siti Fatimah, M.Pd., as the second supervisor who has provided suggestions and guidance in writing this undergraduate thesis,
4. All lecturers of English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya,
5. My beloved parents Anto and Susy who have always supported and prayed for me, and for my lovely sister Balqist who always provided help and company during the writing of this undergraduate thesis.

6. My best friends Feni, Maya, Mutya, Haikal, Hendy, Fadil, Sofia, Dilan, Tania, Hilya, Kharisma, and Ayunda who always lent an ear, helped, and supported in finishing this undergraduate thesis.
7. All individuals who have provided help and support in completing this undergraduate thesis.

This undergraduate thesis is far from perfect. Therefore, suggestions and criticisms from the readers are welcome. Hopefully, this thesis will be useful to the readers and society in general.
