

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Alhamdulillah, by the grace and guidance of Allah swt., the researcher could complete this thesis entitled, “Students’ Perceptions toward ‘Cake Application’ in Speaking Practices: A Case Study in EFL Context” to fulfil one of the requirements for Sarjana Pendidikan degree at English Education Department of Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training Siliwangi University. This thesis would not be completed without the help and support of these superb people. Therefore, the researcher wants to say a thousand thanks to the following people:

1. My cherished family offers unending support and prayers for me to keep getting up when fatigue sets in during this process. My mother, who constantly brightens my day with her smile and humour. My father, who constantly consoles me and takes me up from school.
2. My supervisors, thank you for your caring and patience in guiding and assisting me in finishing this thesis.
3. All lecturers and staff of Siliwangi University, for all of the experiences I have had due to the chances I have had to study and grow here.
4. My dear buddies are always there for me and encourage me in any situation. Thank you very much for becoming a friend of mine.

Finally, I thank everyone who has contributed in completing the thesis that this cannot enumerate. I hope this thesis can be helpful, even though I realised that this thesis still requires much revision.
