

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praise is due to Allah SWT., the almighty who has bestowed His mercy. May prayers and peace be always poured out to our prophet Muhammad SAW, who has become a role model for humankind. Alhamdulillah, this thesis entitled “English Pre-service Teachers’ Challenges in Teaching Practicum During Covid-19 Pandemic: A Case Study in Indonesian EFL Context” has finally been accomplished. This thesis can be accomplished because of much support from superb people around the researcher. Therefore, on this great occasion, the researcher intended to convey sincere gratitude to:

1. Head of English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya,
2. Neni Marlina, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the first supervisor who has given corrections and guidance to improve the quality of this thesis,
3. Ratu Sarah Pujasari, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the second supervisor who has given corrections and guidance to improve the quality of this thesis,
4. Fuad Abdullah, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the academic advisor,
5. All lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya,
6. The researcher’s parents who have been caring for the researcher in their prayers; supporting her morally and financially; and entrusting the researcher to continue her study at the college,
7. Faliza Elfariana, as the only researcher’s younger sister who has been a cheering person and a best friend ever,
8. Cindy, Irma, Mira, Nopi, and Riska, as the housemates who have encouraged each other during the researcher’s out-of-town period,
9. Endah, Kirana, Mira, and Riska, the researcher’s best friends, and all her EED classmates who have been creating magical days and indescribable feelings in college,

10. The fictional characters who have been cultivating the value of resilience, patience, and hard work for the researcher in compiling this thesis, thanks to Levi Ackerman and Sasuke Uchiha.

In the final word, the researcher would like to thank all people who have contributed to the completion of this thesis. May Allah SWT. always repay all of their kindness with His blessings.
