

ABSTRAC

The purpose of this study was to find out students who have sports talent among elementary school students in Margaluyu Village in 2022. This study used a descriptive method. The research population was elementary school students in Margaluyu Village. The sample in this study were 52 elementary school students in Margaluyu Village, namely SDN 4 Manonjaya and SDN Kalapadua. The data collection technique used was a test and measurement technique, namely 10 Sport Search tests. Based on the table, it shows that, of the number of elementary school students in Margaluyu Village, there are 52 students who have a very potential category that has not yet been seen, while students who have sports potential are 6 people or 11.5%, the category of enough sports potential is 18 people. or 34.6%, the less potential category is 16 people or 30.8%, the non-potential category is 12 people or 23.1%. Based on the data on the results of the gifted sports test for elementary school students in Margaluyu Village, those who have the potential to be gifted in sports are 1 student's long jump or 1.92%, 2 students' sprint or 3.84%, 1 student's hurdles or 1, 92%, hammer throw 2 students or 3.84%, shot put 2 students or 3.84%, and weightlifting 1 student or 1.92%

Keywords: Identification, Talent, Sport