

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praises belong to Allah SWT, the Most Merciful, who always blesses and guides me so I can finish my thesis entitled “Narrating the Professional Identity of an English Instructor in a Private English Course”. Then, blessings and mercy are upon our great Prophet Muhammad, may Allah bless him, and his guidance that brings us to the truth. This research proposal is submitted to fulfil the requirement for thesis writing at the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.

On this occasion, I would like to express my gratitude to:

1. Head of Study Program of English Education, for his outstanding academic and administrative performance.
2. Dr. Agis Andriani, S.Pd., M.Hum., as the first supervisor, and Fera Sulastri, S.Pd., M.Pd, as my second supervisor, for their invaluable guidance, support, and encouragement in finishing this thesis.
3. All lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.
4. To my first love, my dad, Norman Muharam. I’m really proud to be your daughter. I am deeply touched by everything you have done for me. Your sacrifices and efforts you made to support me in these past 24 years, especially in these past 2, have made me realise how deeply grateful and lucky I am to have a dad like you. Your acts of kindness have never gone unnoticed.
5. To my ultimate inspiration and my best friend, my mom, Pevi Revianti. Thank you for being by my side and understanding me in a way no one can, never judging me for what I want to do, and being whoever I wanted to be. Your belief in me never failed, even when mine did, but you always picked me up and got me back on my two feet when I couldn’t. Everything in my life, from good to bad, you were always there, reminding me that I could get through it.
6. To my brothers Wanna Lexandry and Syndu Wylbian. Love you, bro.
7. To my spirit animal, Mowie. She healed me and always reminds me that I’m not alone. Thank you for your existence, and I wish for more time with you.

8. To my supportive sister, Dewi Amalia. You are a very special young woman, and I have loved to grow together with you for over 12 years and have always had you by my side.
9. To the girl I have met along my university journey, Shelvi Susanto. Thank you for always being a supportive friend who brings laughter and encouragement during both the difficult and joyful times. Your kindness, patience, and genuine care have truly made my academic journey more meaningful and memorable."
10. And all my friends I shared my laughter with, Imma, Akdila, Rani, Yuni, Fitri, and Devie. My life never gets boring with you.

I acknowledge that this thesis is a collective effort, and I am grateful for the contributions and support of all of the above. However, any errors in this thesis remain my responsibility.
