

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

All glory goes to Allah swt, the Most Merciful, who has always been there to guide and bless me, allowing me to complete my thesis, "Exploring the Impacts of L1 Interference on Pronunciation Difficulties in EFL Context." Then, I am grateful to our Prophet Muhammad for his guidance that leads us to the truth, and we are blessed and merciful to him. At the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya, this thesis is submitted to satisfy a requirement for a Sarjana Pendidikan degree.

On this occasion, I would like to express my special thanks to:

1. Head of English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya for his invaluable assistance both in academic and administrative matters.
2. Dr. Agis Andriani, S.Pd., M.Hum., as the first supervisor who has given me corrections, suggestions, and guidance in finishing this thesis.
3. Sitti Syakira, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the second supervisor who has given suggestions and guidance in writing this thesis.
4. All of the lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.
5. My beloved family, who have supported me spiritually, morally, and financially, and for their prayers, support, and everlasting love, so I may complete this thesis.
6. My long-lasting best friend, R. Rizqy Lukito Surawilaga, who has been with me for eight years since high school, always provides support, happiness, and motivation so that I can reach this achievement. I thank you for always being beside me whenever things are rough. I'm very proud of you, and I couldn't ask for a better friend than you.
7. My girl best friend, Riska Sri Maudi, thank you so much for always supporting me, thanks for always being there for me when I need you the most. You are such an angel to me. I do appreciate every little thing you do to me. Once again, thank you very much.

8. All English Education friends, thank you all for all the moments that we have shared since day 1 of being a university student.
9. My Kost Al-Hidayah friends, thank you all for all the moments that we have shared. You guys have been very nice and kind to me, and thank you for always helping each other.
10. All parties who contributed recommendations and feedback to me, as well as other parties that assisted in the completion of this research thesis, cannot be mentioned one by one.
11. Last but not least, I want to thank myself, thanks for always fighting till the end and never giving up. I am proud of you, Saeful Anwar.
