

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First and foremost, all praise and gratitude belong to Allah SWT, the Most Merciful and Compassionate. It is only by His grace that I found the strength to keep going when I felt like giving up, the patience to endure every challenge, and the health to complete this thesis. Without His divine presence, this journey would have remained unfinished.

To my beloved mother, Anisah, thank you for your unwavering prayers, your comforting presence, and your endless patience. Your gentle words, your strength behind the scenes, and your quiet sacrifices have been my greatest source of peace. You are the heart of my journey, and I dedicate this achievement to your love and devotion.

To my father, Adis, your strength, belief in me, and guidance have shaped the path I walk today. Your hard work and silent encouragement have given me the courage to pursue my goals. Thank you for always being my pillar of strength, even when things felt uncertain. And my sisters, Agnia and Nida, who always support my journey and make my day colorful.

To my respected supervisors, Junjun Muhamad Ramdani and Sitti Syakira, thank you for believing in me even when I doubted myself. Your guidance and patience were like light in times when I was lost in confusion. Thank you for walking beside me in this academic journey, not just as mentors, but as kind souls who truly cared.

To my dearest friends, Indah, Keysa, Saeful, Julianty, Dinda, and Rakha, thank you for accompanying me from the very beginning until the very end. Through every breakdown, revision, and moment of doubt, your presence was my source of calm and motivation. Your loyalty, encouragement, and warmth made this journey meaningful beyond words.

To my friends at Kosan Al-Hidayah, thank you for the small joys that kept me going, the shared meals, late-night talks, and quiet understanding. Your companionship made even the hardest days feel lighter.

To my friends from Pesantren Daarussalaam, thank you for your prayers, your sincere concern, and the spiritual strength you shared with me. Your presence reminded me of the deeper purpose behind this journey and kept me grounded in faith.

This thesis was not written in isolation. It is built on the love, kindness, and prayers of every soul who stood by me. May Allah reward you all with peace, joy, and endless blessings.
