

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

All gratitude to Allah subhānahu wata'ālā. Who has given the researcher mercy and prosperity to finally complete this thesis entitled “Analysis of Presupposition towards Netizens’ Hate Speech in a Social Media Platform”? This thesis is submitted to fulfill the requirements for the Sarjana Pendidikan at the English Education Department of the Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University. Building connections with others is a fundamental necessity, as no one achieves success in isolation. Therefore, on this occasion, the researcher would like to express heartfelt gratitude to:

1. The honorable head of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training
2. The honorable Dr. Agis Andriani, S.Pd, M.Hum., is the first supervisor who has provided guidance, assistance, and correction in completing this thesis.
3. The honorable Neni Marlina, S.Pd, M.Pd, is the second supervisor who has provided guidance, assistance, and suggestions in writing this thesis.
4. The researcher wants to thank Siliwangi University for its support in providing facilities, resources, and access to the library.
5. The researcher’s beloved parents and the entire family have given the researcher unconditional love and support.
6. The researcher’s dearest friend, Salsa Hanifa Rahmi, has been the researcher’s greatest source of support and strength during the most challenging times of this study. The researcher would like to thank her for endless encouragement, kindness, and presence, which helped to navigate through the most challenging moments of this journey.
7. The researcher’s precious partners, Nada Rahmatillah and Alda Nurhayati Hardianto, who helped the researcher when facing many confusions and dead ends, and have been prepared to listen to all the grumbling while working on it.

8. Nadia Ilma Mutiarani, the researcher's friend in arms, is always available to help and assist the researcher both during the work and throughout the guidance process.
9. Sherly Rizki Saputri, Nabila Khairunnisa, Annisya Syahgia Despilanni, Ai Nur Kholifah Faujiah, and Astri Fitrianti. The researcher would like to thank you for all the colors and enjoyment give, for all the trust and confidence shown, and a gratitude for being a place to rest from the fatigue of this long process.
10. Lastly, the researcher extends the deepest gratitude to the researcher herself, for persevering through this journey and seeing it completed. The path was far from easy, filled with mixed emotions. But each challenge became a stepping stone, shaping the researcher into someone stronger and more resilient.

In short, thank you to all those who directly or indirectly completed this research. The researcher realizes that this study is far from perfect. Hence, the suggestions and criticism from the readers will help this research improve in the future. Hopefully, this research helps the readers to understand the topic.
