

ABSTRACT

This essay explores the progress and the role K.H. Abul Halim's function in the political structure from 1917 until Indonesia's independence in 1945. Regarding the methodology employed in this study, it is a qualitative, historical approach to data collection a technique known as library study. After finishing his studies in the Middle East in 1911, Abul Halim played a significant role in Majalengka society by reforming the education and learning system. However, he also played a significant part in politics. the Persjarkatan Oelama quite quickly in 1917-1918, attracting the interest of the other Islamic movement fighter. This attention persisted until the time of Japan occupation.

Keywords: Majalengka, Politic, Islam