

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

All praises are directed to Allah swt., the Almighty, who has bestowed protection, guidance, love, and mercy. Through His blessings, the researcher has completed this thesis entitled: “Exploring Students’ Perceptions of The Intrinsic Motivational Benefits of Digital Storytelling Projects in English Learning” The researcher expresses gratitude toward a lot of people who have contributed toward this research proposal following:

1. The honorable Mrs. Santiana, as the first supervisor, always guides the researcher and gives her time for giving meaningful insights and advice during writing this research.
2. The honorable Mrs. Ratu Sarah Pujasari, as the second supervisor also always guides the researcher and gives her time for giving meaningful insights and advice during writing this research.
3. The research participants who have volunteered and participated toward this research by providing valuable data.
4. The researcher's beloved family Mamah, Papah who have cared for and educated the researcher with affection, love, and always supported the researcher to pursue her dreams.
5. All the lecturers of the English Education Department Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya who give researchers valuable knowledge.
6. The researcher's best friends and classmates who always support, advise, and encourage researcher during this research writing process.

In conclusion, the researcher extends gratitude to all those who have helped and contributed toward the completion of this research. May Allah subhanahu wa Ta’ala bless them with all the goodness of this world and the hereafter.

Tasikmalaya, July 2025

Siti Amelia Fitri