

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. My deepest gratitude goes to Allah subhānahu wata'ālā for His endless mercy, guidance, and strength throughout my academic journey and the completion of this thesis entitled “Analyzing the Language of Humor and Why it is Funny in Stand-Up Comedy on ‘Don’t Tell Comedy.’” This work marks an academic achievement and a personal journey filled with challenges, growth, and blessings.

On this occasion, I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation to the following individuals and groups whose support has been instrumental:

1. The Head of the Department of English Education, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teacher Training at Siliwangi University, fostered an environment of academic excellence and encouragement throughout my studies.
2. Dr. H. Soni Tantan Tandiana, S.Pd, my first supervisor, whose insightful guidance, patience, and sincere feedback helped shape and refine this thesis. Your mentorship has been invaluable.
3. Metty Augustine Primary, S.Pd, M.Pd, my second supervisor, for her thoughtful suggestions, constructive criticisms, and unwavering support throughout the writing process.
4. All lecturers of the Department of English Education, whose dedication, wisdom, and inspiration have left a lasting impact on my academic and personal development.
5. My beloved mother, Dedeh, and my father, KUSDINAR, have always been a constant support in every step, both emotionally and financially. My siblings, Meuthia, Milzam, and Mizzi, have brought so much laughter and warmth throughout many moments. My dear grandmother, with her sincere love, has constantly reminded me what it truly means to be cared for.
6. High school memories shine brighter because of Jessy, Boy, and Ditta's friends, who never failed to bring laughter, stood by through the wild turns of growing up, said “yes” to every hangout and every silly plan, and made the teenage years feel infinite.

7. Lidya and Shasita brought color to the early days of university, two souls who shared the same sense of humor. Their shared hobbies made every ordinary day feel special.
8. Andin, Siska, and Nabila transformed classrooms into comfort zones, where friends gathered not only for tasks and projects, but also in times of joy and sadness. Together, we navigated the rush of deadlines and always lifted one another.
9. The Sonshine gang, comprising Indri, Mukhlash, and Edward, made FKIP EDU more than just a program. Since the first meeting, we’ve helped, laughed, and grown beside each other, offering support that lasted until the very end of this chapter.
10. Every moment at university became a richer story thanks to those I’ve met along the way: Class C 2021, KKN Banyuasih peers, FKIP EDU SMPN 14 Tasikmalaya, and HIMA EDSA companions. Each of you gave me new experiences, unforgettable lessons, and friendships that shaped my journey.
11. พี่เบียร์ has been a gentle presence across the distance, always there to listen, to care, to remind me that I am never alone. Believing in me when I doubted myself, offering comfort even in silence, and proving that true friendship knows no borders.
12. To all the actors and actresses of GMMTV and Nadao, thank you for being a constant source of comfort, laughter, and healing. In moments when life felt overwhelming and burdensome, your performances brought light to the darkest days. Your work has not only entertained but also helped me get through the most stressful and challenging times.

This thesis is far from perfect. I humbly welcome any constructive feedback or suggestions for improvement. May this work bring benefits and insights not only for myself but also for readers and researchers.

Tasikmalaya, July 2025

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Deti Nursalindar', with a stylized flourish underneath.

Deti Nursalindar