

ABSTRACT

Islamic boarding schools are one of the oldest educational institutions in Indonesia. Apart from formal schools, Islamic boarding schools are generally chosen to be a basis for strengthening religious knowledge, especially Islam. Islamic boarding schools are institutions that are a manifestation of the development process of the national education system with a more complete system for educating and learning religious knowledge. This research aims to determine the development of Islamic education regarding the role of Islamic boarding schools. Islamic boarding schools in Indonesia have their own concept of education within the framework of religious values and lead to morality as taught by the Prophet which needs to be applied in social life. Including the education taught at the Darussalam Islamic boarding school, in its development from year to year there have been very significant changes both in terms of education and facilities and infrastructure. This research method uses the historical method, which is a method that tries to solve problems that occurred in the past. To obtain data sources, the author uses historical methodology. Based on the research results, the development of the Darussalam Tasikmalaya Islamic boarding school has experienced significant development. The Darussalam Islamic boarding school was founded on March 21 2007, starting from a chicken coop to become a dormitory for the students. endowed from H. Asep Nawawi Suherman who was the father of KH. Ahmad Deni Rustandi. The waqf land, which starts at 1400 square meters, is increasing and becoming wider from year to year. KH. Ahmad Deni Rustandi is the founder and leader of the Darussalam Islamic boarding school. The development of the Darussalam Tasikmalaya Islamic boarding school has experienced improvements starting from facilities and infrastructure, development of educational levels, development of educational institutions, development of external institutions, distribution of Darussalam Islamic boarding school alumni, the establishment of the Darussalam 2 Afiah Islamic boarding school, and the learning system in place.
