

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Bismillahirrahmanaminarrahim. All praise and gratitude to Allah Subhanahu wa ta'ala, the Lord of the universe. Through his grace and mercy, I was able to complete this research entitled “The Correlation Between Reading for Pleasure and Students’ Writing Ability in Composing Narrative Text at Junior High School in Tasikmalaya.” This research was submitted as one of the requirements for fulfilling part of the thesis writing in the English Education Study Program, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.

On this occasion, I would like to express my gratitude to all people who have contributed to the completion of this research. The researcher would like to convey her highest gratitude to the honorable:

1. The Head of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya.
2. The researcher supervisor, Mr. Yuyus Saputra, M.Pd., and Mrs. Nita Sari Narulita Dewi, M.Pd., who have given much guided, provided suggestions, and corrections that have been very helpful to the researcher in completing this research.
3. All lecturers in the English Education Department at Siliwangi University, who have shared their knowledge, insights, and valuable learning experiences throughout the researcher's academic journey.
4. The researcher's parents, Agus and Wati, who have provided love, support, the best education, and unceasing prayers. They have also been the most comfortable place and source of strength in every step of the researcher's life.
5. Beloved friends, Ilda Saniati Munawaroh, Revi Mariska and Delsi Lipiyanti, who have provided encouragement, cooperation, and were always present in both joy and sorrow during the research writing process.
6. The researcher's classmates from the EED A class of 2021, who have been part of the researcher's memorable and meaningful academic journey.
7. Lastly, to myself for always staying strong through every struggle and never giving up, even when things got hard. Many problems have been faced, and many joys have been passed. I hope that I can be successful in the future, and may this positive energy always remain with me.
