

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

All gratitude and praise are directed to Allah swt., the Almighty who has given us life and knowledge and blessings. Through His blessing, the researcher has completed this thesis entitled “Students’ Perceptions of Using Google Translate for Writing Skills: A Case Study.” The researcher expresses gratitude toward a lot of people who have contributed toward this thesis following :

1. The honorable Mrs. Santiana, as the first supervisor, always guides the researcher and gives her time for giving meaningful insights and advice during writing this thesis.
2. The honorable Mr. Junjun Muhamad Ramdani, as the second supervisor also always guides the researcher and gives his time for giving meaningful insights and advice during writing this thesis.
3. The research participants and institutions who have volunteered and participated toward this research by providing valuable data.
4. The researcher's beloved parents Wahyat and Elis Sri Haryati, the researcher's beloved siblings Lifia Fadilunnisa and Luqyana Fakhira who always give support and educate the researcher.
5. All the friends and lecturers of the English Education Department Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya who give researchers valuable knowledge.

In conclusion, the researcher extends gratitude to all those who have helped and contributed toward the completion of this research. May Allah subhanahu wa Ta’ala bless them with all the goodness of this world and the hereafter.

Tasikmalaya, November 2025

Adi Nugraha