

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praises be to Allah SWT for His blessings and guidance, which enabled the researcher to complete this research, “Students’ Perceptions of Oral Corrective Feedback in English Speaking Classrooms: A Case Study at One of the Indonesian Universities”. This thesis is submitted as partial fulfilment of the requirements for thesis completion at the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teacher Training, Universitas Siliwangi.

On this occasion, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to:

1. Head of English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teacher’s Training, Universitas Siliwangi, Tasikmalaya.
2. Dr. Metty Agustine Primary, S.Pd., M.Pd., and Rahmat, S.Pd., M.Hum., for their invaluable guidance, constructive feedback, and constant encouragement throughout this research process.
3. All lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teacher’s Training, Universitas Siliwangi, Tasikmalaya.
4. To the researcher's family, your unwavering support, prayers, and understanding have been a source of strength for the researcher throughout this journey.
5. The researcher would like to thank his fellow students, especially the class B class of 2021, as fellow researchers in the English Language Education Department, whose advice and motivation have inspired the researcher to struggle in completing this research.
6. Finally, the researcher would like to thank himself for his persistence, dedication, and hard work in completing this research. This journey was full of challenges, but also a valuable learning experience.
