

PREFACE

Thanks to Allah SWT for his blessing and mercy, gratefully the author can finish writing this thesis entitled "Students' Perception of Using Canva for Collaborative Writing in an ESP Course Design Context". This thesis investigates students' perception while using Canva for collaborative writing in an ESP Course Design Context in creating English modules for accounting.

This thesis intends to find out the perceptions of EFL students using Canva as a collaborative writing. In addition, the author also provides a theoretical basis regarding students' perceptions while using Canva for collaborative writing in ESP Course Design Context. At the end, the author provides a research methodology to explain how the author will conduct research.

In systematizing this paper, the author faced many challenges but with the help and support of many individuals, these challenges can be overcome. The author also notices that there are still many mistakes in the process of writing this research proposal. Therefore, the criticism and suggestion from the reader will help this research proposal better in the future. Finally, hopefully, this paper can be useful for readers to get more knowledge in the Context matter.
