

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The researcher acknowledges that numerous parties have provided invaluable support, direction, and encouragement during the writing of this thesis. Therefore, the researcher would like to sincerely thank everyone who has contributed to the completion of this work:

1. Dr. Agis Andriani, M.Hum. as the first supervisor, for her continuous support and insightful feedback throughout the writing process.
2. Dr. Asri Siti Fatimah, M.Pd. as the second supervisor, for her continuous support and insightful feedback throughout the writing process.
3. Head of the English Education Department and all lecturers in Siliwangi University who have shared their knowledge during the years of study.
4. Researcher's beloved father in the heaven, the desire to make you proud is one of the greatest motivation in completing this your journey. Your passing once left we wandering and lost my way, yet I never lost my belief that your love remained with me, for as long as it takes. I dedicate this achievement for you, from your daughter in every lifetime.
5. Researcher's beloved mother, thank you for staying. Watching you gave your fullest support to me in every way you can, I could never let this journey pass without expressing my gratitude to you.
6. Researcher's beloved sister, thank you for all the love, laughter, and support all this time.
7. All of my dearest friends, thank you for all your countless helps and supports in years of study, especially when finishing this thesis.

The researcher is aware that this thesis is still far from perfect. Therefore, constructive suggestions are welcome for better improvements in the future.
