

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praise to Allah Swt., for His abundant grace and guidance enabled the completion of this research. This journey was also supported by many individuals, to whom the author expresses the deepest gratitude:

1. My supervisors, Melisa Sri, M.Pd. as my First Supervisor and Dr. Metty Agustine Primary, M.Pd. as my Second Supervisor. I am sincerely grateful for your patient guidance and insightful feedback, which sharpened my analysis and broadened my perspective.
2. All the lecturers of the English Education Study Program, for the invaluable knowledge, guidance, and inspiration they have shared throughout my academic journey. Their teaching has built the foundation upon which this research is based.
3. The students who participated in this research. Your enthusiasm and cooperation were the heart of this study.
4. The headmaster and teachers of the partner school, for granting the permission and support needed to conduct this research
5. My beloved family, for your constant prayers, unconditional love, and firm encouragement, which provided the foundation of support for this achievement.
6. My dearest friends, peers, and mentors, for the constructive feedback, insightful discussions, and moral support that made this process meaningful and enjoyable.
7. All individuals who have contributed directly or indirectly to this research. Your support is deeply appreciated.

Tasikmalaya, 23 June 2026

Raisa Fadilah Ramadani