All praises be to Allah SWT., the Almighty, the Most Merciful, and the Owner of all knowledge. By His blessings, guidance, and endless mercy, I am finally able to complete this thesis entitled VOCABULARY ACQUISITION THROUGH “GROW A GARDEN” ON ROBLOX: EXPERIENCES OF A NON-ENGLISH MAJOR STUDENT. This thesis is submitted to the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Universitas Siliwangi, as partial fulfillment of the Sarjana Pendidikan Degree.

On this occasion, the writer would like to express sincere gratitude to:

1. The head of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Universitas Siliwangi, Tasikmalaya;
2. My incredible supervisors, Ibu Dr. Melisa, S.Pd., M.Pd., and Ibu Dea Silvani, S.Pd., M.Pd., for their invaluable time, patience, guidance, and faith in my ability;
3. All lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers’ Training, Universitas Siliwangi, Tasikmalaya;
4. My beloved parents, Ayah Maman Poniman and Mamah Dewi Rakhmayanti. Thank you for every silent prayer, every sleepless night, and every unspoken word of worry;
5. My only enemy whom I cannot live without, my sister, Kiera Shanara Izzati. Thank you for the chaos and the comfort, you will always be my favorite kind of noise;
6. My dearest Komet, Retna Ayu Ratu Gumilang, Tiara Amanda Putri, Rahayuna Putri Agustin, Alfiana Maulida, and Andin Audina Dwiutami Rahman. The distance along this college life may separate us, but our friendship remains close at heart;
7. My always-ready-to-go friends, Isma Naufalianti Kusnadi, Dewi Alifia Putri, and Fatimah Az Zahra. Thank you for always being the first in my mind whenever I need help;

8. My online best friend, Ashri Widya, thank you for every talk and every reminder that distance means nothing when hearts understand each other;
9. Finally, to myself. Thank you for staying strong, for choosing to rise after every fall, and for continuing to believe that even small steps can lead to something beautiful.

To everyone whose names may not appear here but whose kindness has touched my journey, I thank you from the bottom of my heart. May this work stand as a reflection of your love, guidance, and the countless hands that helped me reach this point.
