9. My dearest friends since I first became a student at Siliwangi University. Thank you, Ami Amizah, Pici Aulia, and Mba Angel. Thank you because of you I am not alone, I found a reason to survive again, thank you because you never left, always accompanied me when I fell and started to get back up after 4 years have passed since the problem came. Thank you because of you I believe that I am not alone,
10. To myself, if someone had told me years ago that I would one day hold this thesis in my hands, I probably would have smiled through my doubts. There were moments when I felt lost, overwhelmed, and afraid that I would never be enough. Yet every setback became a lesson, every wound became a reminder that healing takes time, and every step no matter how small brought me closer to this day. This achievement belongs not only to the version of me who succeeded, but also to the version who cried, who struggled, who almost gave up, and still chose to wake up and try again. I owe this moment to every version of myself. Thank you for surviving. Thank you for believing. And above all, thank you for never giving up on me.
11. Thank you to all who always supported me while I wrote the research. To conclude, the writer would like to thank all the people who have helped and supported the researcher in accomplishing this research.
