

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praises are due to Allah SWT, the Almighty, the Creator of the universe, by His guidance, mercy, and protection along the way, the researcher has been able to complete this research proposal titled: "A Case Study of English Teachers' Challenges and Strategies in Teaching a Student with Autism Spectrum Disorder." Several people contributed to the researcher in accomplishing this research proposal. Hence, the researcher would like to take this opportunity to express genuine gratitude to:

1. The honorable Head of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya;
2. The honorable Neni Marlina M.Pd., as the first supervisor who has given guidance, pertains to the whole idea of this research proposal,
3. The honorable Santiana, S.S., M.Pd., as the second supervisor who has given guidance, pertains to the details of this research proposal,
4. All the lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Siliwangi University, Tasikmalaya,
5. The English teachers who shared their valuable experiences and insights during their time as part of this research. Their decision to participate and learn about my teaching methods was invaluable in completing this research.
6. The researcher's beloved parents, Ayah and Ibu, for their guidance, financial support, and continuous encouragement during the process of completing this research.
7. I am deeply grateful to my high school friends, especially Nadhilah, for her enduring friendship, unwavering support, and constant presence in my life. Thank you for being such a meaningful part of my journey since 2020 and still counting. Your kindness, encouragement, and belief in me have been a source of strength throughout the years, and I will always cherish our friendship.
8. A special thanks to my Sleepover Gang, Abe, Ime, and Dnd. We eventually became close, and the unforgettable memories we shared have become one of the best parts of my university life. Thank you for all the laughter, late-night talks, and endless support. I'm truly grateful to have shared this journey with all of you. Even after graduation, let's plan another sleepover soon!

9. I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation to my fellow English Education students for the shared journey, mutual support, and encouragement throughout this academic pursuit. A special thank you goes to my thesis supervision friends, who were always there to support, encourage, and accompany me while waiting for our turn to meet our supervisor. Those moments of sharing, laughing, and motivating one another made this journey much lighter and more memorable.
10. I would also like to express my gratitude to the people I have met through various meaningful experiences, including the EDSA Catalyst Cabinet, FKIP-EDU Nineteen—especially my "Wanita Banyak Mau" group members—and KKN 22 Ciampanan. Thank you for your friendship, support, and the meaningful memories we created together. Your presence has greatly contributed to my personal and academic growth, and it has been a true pleasure to know and connect with all of you from different years and even departments.
11. Lastly, I want to thank me, myself, and I for staying strong throughout this journey, for getting through every challenge, and for always finding the strength to stand back up.

Tasikmalaya, July 2nd 2026

Nisriina Salma Azzahra