

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Praises and gratitude belong to Allah Swt. Because of His blessing and mercy, this research thesis can be fulfilled. There are also many people who contributed to helping the researcher to accomplish this research. Therefore, the researcher would like to convey great gratitude to them.

1. Head of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Universitas Siliwangi, for his assistance in both academic and administrative matters.
2. My first research supervisor, Dewi Rosmala, S.Pd., MA., Ph.D., and my second research supervisor, Dr. Melisa Sri, S.Pd., M.Pd., for guiding me in an insightful way to finish this thesis.
3. My beloved family, for their blessing, praises, and support given to me and for being a good environment for me to develop myself.
4. Research participants, for their insightful contribution to this research data sources.
5. My friends Nazla, Edward, and Teh Dilla for always giving me positive energy, motivation, and companionship in fulfilling my thesis.
6. My beloved cats, Biscuit and Hiro, who have been constant companions, providing warmth, comfort, and emotional support throughout the completion of my thesis.
7. My psychiatrist, Dr. Deanna, for her continuous support, understanding, and encouragement that helped me stay grounded and motivated during the research process.
8. And finally, thanks to myself for always trying hard to take many opportunities. I hope all of the efforts will produce very good results in the future.

Tasikmalaya, June 2026

Alya Ardelia Apsari