

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

All praise is due to Allah SWT, the Most Gracious and the Most Merciful, for His blessings and guidance that enabled me to complete this thesis entitled "Learners' Interest and Enjoyment as Predictors of Perceived Cognitive Development in AI-Assisted English Learning." I would like to express my sincere gratitude to:

1. Dr. Yusup Supriyono, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the first supervisor, for his guidance, encouragement, and valuable suggestions throughout the writing of this thesis.
2. Melisa Sri, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the second supervisor, for her advice, invaluable feedback, and continuous support during this process, which greatly helped me refine and improve this research.
3. All lecturers of the English Education Department, Faculty of Educational Sciences and Teachers' Training, Universitas Siliwangi, for their knowledge, assistance, and inspiration during my academic journey.
4. My beloved mother, Eulis Sumiati thank you for a love that never runs out, prayers that never stop, and sacrifices too many to count. You've been my home. My strength. The reason I kept getting back up when things got bad. I don't think words could ever really tell how much you mean to me.
5. My lovely Father, Hery Siswanto, I miss you beyond words. I wish you could see this. I keep your love and the principles you taught me with me constantly. I hope this makes you proud wherever you are.
6. My brother, Muhammad Raihan Ramadhan, thank you for always being there for me, for your support and encouragement that kept me going till the very end.
7. Dearest Kian Diana, thank you for always being there for me, for listening to my anxieties, for picking me up when I was tired, and for reminding me that every fight comes to an end. Thank you for walking with me every step of the way on my trip till I eventually got to this place.
8. My dear big family for their prayers, infinite love and all-time support, which has been my biggest strength to complete this journey.
9. Ira, Tita and Wahyu, my closest friends in university, thank you for the fun, the support and all the precious memories that we made. I'm so thankful for your friendship and your presence that made these years so much more meaningful.

10. My heartfelt gratitude to EDSA 2023 and 2024 for the invaluable experiences and for being the first location where I began to grow and seek the things I had only dreamed of.
11. My sincere thanks to BEM FKIP UNSIL 2025, for being a place where I learned many new things and grew stronger.
12. The writer, Raisa Lentera Bumi, would like to thank herself—the independent woman who never gave up, even in the moments when everything felt overwhelming. Thank you for staying committed, for pushing through the sleepless nights, the doubts, and the exhaustion, and for never losing sight of this goal. This journey has not always been easy, but she is proud of how far she has come. Thank you, Raisa, for believing in yourself, even when it was hard to.

I realize that this research thesis is not perfect. Therefore, I welcome constructive suggestions and criticism for future improvement. I truly hope that this thesis will be helpful and meaningful for the readers.
